

Me and My Toys

Story by Abu Ady

Assalamu'alaikum. My name is Ady. I love and enjoy playing. I have many toys. What toys do you have?

My parents bought all my toys. Every time they buy me a toy, I say, "Thank you, Mom and Dad."

I take good care of my toys. After playing, I tidy up my toys by myself.

When my mom asks me to eat, I stop playing and have my meal. When the call to prayer is announced, I stop playing to pray.

Playing is my favorite thing to do, but I also enjoy reading and studying. If my dad calls me to study, I immediately respond to his call. I have to study to become smart.

My dad says, "Don't just keep playing! We must remember to pray, we
must remember to eat,
and we must also
remember to study."

Let's play, let's learn. Obey both your parents and don't neglect them and your studies
because of toys.
