One day, an Anshari woman came to Rasulullah ﷺ.

She offered to make a minbar (pulpit) as a seat for him ﷺ when delivering khutbah (sermon).

Rasulullah ﷺ accepted the offer.

Rasulullah ﷺ used to deliver khutbah while standing beside a date palm tree.

But as the minbar finished, Rasulallah ﷺ used the pulpit instead.

It was when the date palm tree started crying so hard it nearly split.

Rasulullah ﷺ descended the minbar and went to the tree.

He embraced the tree to stop its crying.

Rasulullah ﷺ then said, “It was crying for missing dzikr it used to hear.”.

Hasan al Bashri[ؓ] said about this hadits, “O muslim, the palm tree cried because he missed Rasulullah^ﷺ. You have more right to miss Rasulullah than the tree.”
