Once upon a time, after the Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) performed the Fajr prayer with his companions,

he turned towards them and began telling a story:

"A shepherd was tending his flock when suddenly, a wolf attacked and carried away one of the sheep.

The shepherd chased and tried to save his sheep."

"Afterward, the wolf unexpectedly spoke to him, saying:

'You have protected these sheep from me, but who will protect them on the day of the arrival of a terrifying creature?'"

"On that day, there will be no shepherd but me!" stated the wolf.

The companions were confused upon hearing this story. They had never imagined that a wolf could speak.

However, both Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) and Abu Bakr (may Allah be pleased with him) believed it.

Do you believe that a wolf can speak?

If this story comes from the Prophet, then we should not hesitate to believe it.
